"Clearpath is not one of those businesses that would succeed in one of those heavily compressed do or die incubator approaches... The AC provided us with the experience to know which markets to go after, and to build a business that could scale. It offered the right combination of resources, but also the right pressure setting."

MATT RENDALL

CEO & Co-Founder, Clearpath Robotics / Accelerator Centre Graduate

"There is no question we are in a fabulous position as a company as a result of our tenure at the AC. The staff and mentors really helped us remain focused on what mattered and gave us the encouragement and support we needed, allowing us to accelerate to where we are now."
